Welcome

BEGIN AGAIN BY GRACE

PSALM 51:10

God is still able to renew what feels weary, tender, or burdened. Begin Again by Grace is a gentle reminder that you do not have to carry yesterday into today. The Lord invites you to come before Him with humility, honesty, and an open heart, trusting Him to create something clean and new within you.

Psalm 51:10 speaks to the deep work of God in the heart. When life feels heavy, grace still reaches for you. Mercy still meets you. The Lord is able to cleanse, steady, and renew you so you can move forward one surrendered step at a time.

As you move through this packet, give yourself permission to slow down, breathe, and receive fresh mercy. Let this be a sacred moment of beginning again with God—one where your thoughts are redirected toward peace, your heart is softened by grace, and your steps are led by Him. Grace begins again.

Prayer:

*Lord, create in me a clean heart. Renew my spirit, steady my steps, and help me receive the fresh mercy You have for today. Teach me to begin again by grace and to let You lead the way.
In Jesus' name, Amen.*

REFLECTION 1

A Clean Heart Before God

PSALM 51:10

Beginning again by grace starts with honesty before God. Psalm 51:10 reminds us that the Lord is able to create in us a clean heart and renew a right spirit within us. You do not have to hide what feels heavy, broken, or weary. Grace invites you to come just as you are.

A clean heart is not created by pressure or performance. It is shaped by surrender, humility, and the mercy of God. When you place your heart before Him, He is faithful to cleanse, steady, and renew you for the journey ahead.

Let this moment be an invitation to slow down, breathe deeply, and allow the Lord to begin again in you. His grace is still reaching for you. His mercy is still new. His love is still at work.

When we slow down and surrender the day to Him, grace steadies our thoughts, softens our pace, and gives us room to begin again with humility.
